Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, D. C. 20505

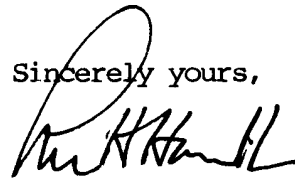

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Committee is reviewing the HUMINT Collection Plans you transmitted in response to my letter of November 7, 1985. These documents will be of assistance in the Committee's continuing review of U.S. human intelligence capabilities.

I very much appreciate the efforts you made to resolve difficulties over access to these documents after your interim response of March 17, 1986. I am sure that this spirit of cooperation between the Committee and the Agency on such matters will continue in the future.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Lee H. Hamilton
Chairman

MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Director of Central Intelligence
VIA: Director, Intelligence Community Staff
FROM: Eloise R. Page
Deputy Director, Intelligence Community Staff
SUBJECT: Response to HPSCI Request for National HUMINT Collection Plans

1. Action Requested: That you select and sign one of the attached responses to Representative Hamilton's request for copies of National HUMINT Collection Plans.

2. Background: Representative Hamilton raised this matter at the DCI's National Intelligence Strategy Hearing on 25 February, reminding the DCI that he had not received a response to his request of November 1985 for a number of HUMINT Collection Plans. The DCI said we were working on this and that he would provide his response in the near future.

3. As you know, we had earlier informed HPSCI staff members that we would not be providing the HPSCI with copies of the HUMINT Collection Plans, but they urged that we do so.

4. Attached are two separate responses to Representative Hamilton's request: the first provides for HPSCI staff members to review the HUMINT Collection Plans at the Community Headquarters Building, without allowing for the actual release of the Plans; the second response explains why it would be inappropriate to allow for either the review or the release of the HUMINT Plans to the Committee.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence
VIA: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
FROM: Acting Director, Intelligence Community Staff
SUBJECT: Response to HPSCI Request for HUMINT Collection Plans

1. Action Requested: That you sign the attached response to Representative Hamilton's request for copies of HUMINT Collection Plans. (U)

2. Discussion: We have considered a number of alternative strategies for dealing with the HPSCI request. However, due to the sensitive nature of the plans and the extent to which they reveal internal management considerations, the attached response offers staff members the opportunity to review the plans but does not provide copies. The response has been coordinated with OGC, and the overall policy is consistent with guidance from the DDCI to the D/ICS provided last Friday, 10 January. (U)

Per ICS:

D/ICS/ has discussed w/DDCI for guidance on how to respond and has another appointment to discuss with him again tomorrow. Said response would be prepared after that discussion--would take a couple days at most to finalize response.
